Campus Apartments Executives Assume Leadership Positions at the Pennsylvania Apartment Association East

*Miles Orth elected President;
Stanley Uhr elected to Board of Directors and Legislative Committee Co-Chair*

PHILADELPHIA – NOVEMBER 21, 2016 – Campus Apartments, one of the nation’s largest providers of on- and off-campus student housing, announces today that two of the company’s executives have been elected into leadership positions at the Pennsylvania Apartment Association East (PAA East). Miles Orth, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, was elected President of the Association, and Stanley Uhr, Vice President and Corporate Counsel, was elected to serve on the Association’s Board of Directors and was also elected Legislative Committee Co-Chair. PAA East is a non-profit organization representing multi-family developers, owners and managers in Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery and Philadelphia counties.

“We are proud of both Miles and Stanley for securing leadership roles with PAA East, demonstrating the strength and trust local real estate leaders have in Campus Apartments,” said David Adelman, CEO of Campus Apartments and a past president of the Association. “ While Campus Apartments’ portfolio spans the country, Philadelphia is our home. Through PAA East and other local organizations, our entire leadership team is committed to advancing the multi-family housing industry in our region.”

Prior to assuming the role of President, Orth has been an active member of PAA East for more than five years, having served on its Board of Directors as well as in the roles of Vice President and Treasurer. Orth has more than 20 years of experience in real estate management and development. He is responsible for Campus Apartments’ overall business operations and strategic initiatives including the day-to-day operational management of the company’s real estate assets.

Uhr has been involved with PAA East for four years, having previously served as a member of the Legislative Committee. At Campus Apartments, he is responsible for providing legal advice to the executive team on a wide range of corporate and real estate issues, including corporate governance, leasing, management agreements and licensing, in addition to acting as a liaison for outside counsel.
